Dear GSCS Families,

Happy November! There is so much to be thankful for all year round, but in this month especially. I am thankful for all the support of our amazing faculty, staff, parents, and grandparents. Thank you for all you do to make GSCS so great! Fall conferences continue and it has been so nice seeing so many parents on campus! As a reminder as stated in our Parent Handbook, “One time a year parents are expected to attend an academic conference with the homeroom teacher regarding progress and/or concerns.”

Booggetti and Trunk or Treat was a great community event! It was great to see so many families in attendance. This week we welcomed back the Scholastic Book Fair. The students were so excited to view and purchase new books! Thank you to everyone involved who helped make it possible!

Our second graders and our babies dressed as Saints for All Saints Day. It was a wonderful addition to our weekly Mass. On Wednesday, November 8th we will have Father Joe presiding Mass to talk about vocations and he will also visit our Middle School classrooms.

This weekend is our Family Mass at 10:45am. We hope to see many of our families there. As a reminder, students who wear their school uniform (not PE) and then check in at the Family Center after Mass will be able to dress in spirit wear on Monday (Rams shirt with PE shorts and sneakers).

Bishop Moore Catholic High School will be hosting an Open House this Sunday, 11/5 at 1:00pm. This is a great opportunity to check out their campus and ask questions if you are considering continuing your child’s Catholic education into high school.

In conjunction with the Parish, we are collecting non-perishable items for the Thanksgiving Food Drive. Each class is responsible for a certain item. Please see the attached flyer for more information and thank you in advance for your support and generosity.

In celebration of Thanksgiving, GSCS PreK3 – 8th grade will be closed from November 20 through November 24; we will resume PreK3 – 8th grade classes on November 27. Our ELC will be in session on Monday, Nov. 20 and Tuesday, Nov. 21, only and will resume on November 27. Extended Care will not be offered during the Thanksgiving break.

Finally, on Wednesday, November 29th, Bishop Noonan will be celebrating Mass with our school community at the 9am Mass. All are welcome to attend this special Mass.

Good Shepherd’s administration, faculty, staff and students are committed to our Good Shepherd Mission and R.A.M.S Belief: R– Ready To Learn, A– Accountable for our Actions, M– Mindful of Others, S– Servants of Christ With Christ as the ever-present teacher, Good Shepherd Catholic School is committed to provide academic excellence, Catholic values, and a faith-filled community to its students.

“Let us not grow tired of doing good, for in due time we shall reap our harvest, if we do not give up.” Galations 6:9

Blessings,
Melissa Rangel,
